

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CHICAGO – November 15th, 2021 – North American Steel Alliance (NASA) announces the addition of our newest Operational Supplier, Hyster-Yale Group, Inc. to the Co-op as of October 1, 2021.

Hyster-Yale Group, Inc. is a leading, globally integrated, full-line lift truck manufacturer offering a broad array of solutions aimed at meeting the specific materials handling needs of customers applications.

“Our experience and focus on the metals industry uniquely qualifies Hyster to assist NASA Member Companies in the drive to boost productivity and compress costs. Hyster has a comprehensive lift truck line backed by decades of proven performance in tough steel-handling environments, which means NASA Member Companies can be confident they’re getting a solution built around their needs, with the pedigree to deliver day after day. We look forward to expanding existing relationships and growing new ones with the NASA Member Companies” states Rick Warren, Director, Major Accounts.

Hyster-Yale Group, Inc. has been serving the materials handling industry for over 90 years and has 21 manufacturing operations in 12 countries.

###

About North American Steel Alliance

The North American Steel Alliance is a Member-owned, steel cooperative with the buying power of more than $9 billion. With the strength over 123 independently operated steel service centers and the reach of over 450 distribution and processing facilities—throughout the United States and Canada—we represent the largest purchasing co-op in the industry. Learn more at steelalliance.com.